SIERRA MADRE, COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

VOLUME 37, NO. 49

Draft Quota
Here Heavy
Next MonthNo Fathers Likely To Receive Induction Notices
In October

Only one Sierra Madrean, Andrew Johnston, was called in the August draft quota of the Sierra Madre-Arcadia-Monrovia draft district. He reports for induction to-morrow morning. The quota was the smallest yet assigned the area and away out of proportion with the draw for September, when more than a hundred men will be called into the service on September 28. The exact number of Sierra Madreans to receive notices is not now available.

Quotas for the October draft are now being made up at Selective Service headquarters in Sacramento and State Director Leitch says it will be slightly less than the September draft, with the probability that if any pre-Pearl Harbor fathers are called the number will be very limited. It does not follow, by any means, that a father who has received notice that his case has been reopened for the purpose of reclassification is to be called into service. A bulletin just received by the draft board says:

"If it is necessary to induct fathers during the month of October, inductions will be scheduled during the period Oct. 26 to Oct. 31, 1943. Pre-Pearl Harbor fathers to be considered for reclassification at this time will include only those who are not engaged in an activity in support of the war effort, or directly on war production, and who do not presently qualify for deferment; those fathers will be given an opportunity to transfer to an activity in support of the war effort or directly in war production before final classification."

The October call will be divided into two parts.

VICTORY GARDEN COMMITTEE
IMPRESSED WITH DEMANDS
FOR A MID-WINTER FAIRMembers Who Tell Their Views On The Subject May Soon Fix A Date For It

The growing little army of Sierra Madre Victory gardeners is asking for and will probably get a winter Victory Garden Fair. Members of the Victory Garden Committee of the Civilian Defense organization have not only given the suggestion much consideration, but are at the point of fixing a date and making definite plans for it at their next meeting. And the consensus is that since there will be many more gardens to draw from and a greater variety of produce the winter fair should be along broader lines than the summer event and that much greater effort should be put into it.

The whole committee believes that since the great profusion of winter flowers for which Sierra Madre is noted will be in bloom, more attention should be given the flower feature which could be made most interesting and attractive. Also some members are outspoken now in favor of including birds and animals among the exhibits as was urged by scores of chicken and rabbit raisers while arrangements were being made for the first fair.

Here is what members of the Victory Garden Committee feel about a winter fair as told by themselves:

F. D. R. Moote of 689 W. Sierra Madre blvd., chairman of the city's Victory Garden committee: "We made a good start in our summer fair, but modesty keeps a good many people from exhibiting their produce. In our next fair, which should be held in the early winter, we might add flowers and citrus fruits."

Mrs. W. R. Dedrick, Jr., of 734 Fairview ave.: "A semi-annual fair might be a good way to draw the community closer together and we need that."

Mrs. Edward Halperin, president of the Woman's Club: "Although Sierra Madre has always been garden-minded the times now almost require a transfer of interest from flowers and shrubs to vegetables. The people who showed at the summer fair were enthusiasts over the exhibit and probably February or March would be a good time for another fair, for then the flowers are at their best. Animals would draw many exhibitors if arrangements for their care could be made."

Harry Lange, president of the Kiwanis Club: "We discussed a winter fair at the summer exhibition, and were then in favor of duplicating our efforts. We felt that it would be well to or-

Ordinance Fixing
City Tax Rate Is Finally Passed

An ordinance fixing the sum of $56,708.34 as the amount of money to be raised by local taxation for the purpose of carrying on the city government during the fiscal year and setting the municipal tax rate at $1.95 was finally adopted by the city council at its meeting Tuesday. Also finally adopted was a resolution granting a flat $10 a month raise in wages to all city employees, and one setting aside $3,000 as this year's contribution to a fund for the purchase of new fire equipment.

The council gave the volunteer fire department a vote of thanks for its efficient service during the fiscal year just past which saw another drop in the annual fire loss. Also the Federal government was thanked for emergency fire equipment recently loaned the city to be used only in cases of emergency.

Housing Shortage
Hits Two School
Superintendents

Henry F. Korsemeier of Artesia, newly elected superintendent of the Sierra Madre School visited here Tuesday. Gerald L. Smith, the former superintendent, introduced Mr. Korsemeier to members of the Kiwanis Club among whom he found several boyhood friends. Mr. Korsemeier is suffering already from the contagious shortage of houses, for he is in sore need of a home for himself and his wife before school opens in September. Mr. Smith by the way, has found that the housing shortage at La Jolla, which is near San Diego, is as acute as it is here and he has been unable to find a home there.

ganize early so that gardeners might prepare their exhibits. We also thought it would be wise to have an evening program about which the judging might center. We might give greater attention to flower exhibits and flower arrangements also. The agricultural committee of the Kiwanis Club is definitely in favor of a winter fair."

Mrs. W. A. McTavish of 164 San Gabriel court: "The summer fair was very good, but not enough people took part in it. They would probably take more interest now and such an event might arouse people's initiative, and give them a better perspective on their own efforts, which they often decry as being of no importance."

Miss Martha Pritchard of 121 E. Algoria ave.: "The winter fair will be much more of a success if gardeners plant now with the fair in view. Victory gardening is a worth while project now, for we release manpower for defense industries, and the Garden Fair will focus community effort on a common point of interest thus drawing us nearer together."

Mrs. William Colligan of 102 Mira Monte ave.: "While the summer fair found many vegetables out of season the winter fair would rectify that point. Such a fair could not possibly interfere with the war effort."

Ford F. S. Blakeman of 117 E. Grand View ave.: "A winter fair will tend to make us more civic minded. Let us take more time to plan for it during the time when people are more garden-minded. Let us plant for it now. We might show canned fruit and vegetables which have been raised on our own ground and canned in our own kitchens. Cash prizes which were suggested at one time are not necessary during war times."

Dean Arnold Bode of 410 W. Montecito ave.: "Such a fair is a good way to encourage people to have a good garden. It is a fine civic effort."

Dan Reib of 75 Canon ave.: "A winter fair would be a very good thing as is anything that encourages gardening. Gardening teaches self-reliance and should be fostered. Winter is an especially good time for leafy vegetables, such as the different varieties of chard, and the cabbages. Peas also do well and come into bearing when expensive to buy. Tomatoes if planted in a sheltered spot away from the winds sometimes do better than in the summer. Wilt does

Sierra Madre
Boy Drops A
Nazi PlaneBlew It To Bits Off Norway Coast, Allan Robertson Writes His Parents

"We were attacked by German planes off the coast of Norway. I got one, myself, and other ships in the outfit got four," Allan Robertson, Navy range finder operator and son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Robertson wrote his parents from Baltimore, where he is resting up after an eventful year at sea.

"I could see the whole action," his letter continued, "for I had control of the guns. All I had to do in getting my German plane was to look in the glass and turn a knob. He blew to bits in front of my eyes."

For months his ship was on patrol in the convoy lanes between North Atlantic ports and the British Isles and Norway, visiting among other places, Spitzbergen, most northerly city in the world; Newfoundland, Iceland and Scotland where his and other American ships for a while joined up with British warships on the convoy route as a part of "the Lineage Navy". For a while his vessel cruised in waters 140 miles from the North pole and weathered a storm in which the wind blew at 145 miles an hour. He landed at Norfolk on his return to the States, "after a very long time in the cold, foggy, windy world we had come to know."

Young Robertson's observations about the girls in the lands he visited were interesting. "They are the most lovely girls in the world," he wrote about those in Iceland. Girls and women in Newfoundland are toothless, he said.

Accompanying a letter from the Seaman first class was a necklace made of Icelandic silver coins for his sister, Frances, and a highly decorated certificate accrediting him as a "son of the Midnight Sun," he having passed into the Arctic circle.

Badly Hurt Woman
Cries With Joy;
Pays Husband's Fine

"Maybe there are a lot of them, but the divorce complaints prove that all women are not like her," observed A. G. Worth, Los Angeles attorney when Ann Hardwick wiped the tears from her swollen, blackened eyes and dug into her purse for $25 with which to pay a fine which City Judge Noren. Eaton assessed against her husband, Roly.

They were gardeners and caretakers at the Goya nursery in Wilcox road when a midnight fire ten days ago destroyed the Goya house and spread to the underbrush on the mountainside, giving Sierra Madre a good scare. Her nose broken, eyes blackened and face swollen from a beating she had received, Mrs. Hardwick was alone and asleep in the house when the fire was discovered in time to save her life. Her husband was asleep beside his truck on the mountain side near the fire and was not disturbed by the excitement. Police found him, still asleep, hours after the fire was out and preferred a charge of drunkenness against him.

It was on this charge, not of wife beating, that he was before Judge Eaton, for Mrs. Hardwick had refused to sign a complaint. As police gave their testimony at the hearing, Mrs. Hardwick wept bitterly and pleaded with the judge not to impose a jail sentence. She seemed stunned when sentence was imposed and dried her tears when a jail sentence was suspended conditioned on Hardwick leaving Sierra Madre at once—and staying away.

When she had paid the fine she began crying again, evidently with joy. And the pair walked out of the court room arm in arm. Mr. Worth had been a spectator and interested observer while waiting for a client.

It's Marvelous

Autumn-like nights and marvelous days marked the weather here during the week, the thermometer registering temperatures under the 90 mark. They have been:

	Max.	Min.
Aug. 20	87°	54°
Aug. 21	86°	58°
Aug. 22	84°	57°
Aug. 23	84°	56°
Aug. 24	83°	54°
Aug. 25	84°	53°

not seem so prevalent in the colder weather. It would be interesting to have animals at the fair if they could be cared for."

Mrs. W. B. Stringfellow of 497 W. Grand View ave.: "Since I do most of the work on three and one half acres, I have little time for going to fairs, but I'm all or it."

Fun Will Feature
Family Dinner of The Womans Club

In keeping with the feeling that life must proceed in as nearly normal manner as possible for sake of the boys who are fighting to retain that very normalcy, the Woman's Club is to have a delightful family affair in its lovely gardens Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, who is in charge of the program, has arranged a fake radio program, consisting of $50.00 questions to be answered by the audience with hilariously appropriate prizes for the answers considered by the judges to be most nearly correct. "Our Jim," (Heasley), the newly elected fire chief, is to be master of ceremonies, and will preside at the microphone. Music will be given throughout the evening by Mrs. George Norris and one of her talented daughters. Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin has provided copies of the recent popular songs which will be at each plate, so that an old-fashioned community sing will be possible. Those members who have not been personally contacted by the committee are requested to save the date for one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season.

Former Officer Is Back In Uniform;
Quits Ice Truck

Even during the warmest weather of the year it didn't take Fred Lewis long to discover that he didn't belong on an ice truck. He has given up the ice business in which he succeeded Craig McLaughlin and is back on the police force—receiving $10 a month more in salary than he received when he resigned a couple months ago. He is back in uniform now on an hourly basis and comes in on the wage increase voted Tuesday for all city employees. Always good natured, the return of Lewis was hailed with delight by his fellows on the police and fire departments.

Samuel S. Embree, carpenter's mate 2/c U. S. Navy has been transferred from Farragut, Ida., where he was stationed for over ten months, to San Diego Naval Training Station.

Apprentice Seaman Bert Embree has been transferred from San Diego Naval Training Station, where he took his basic training to the Naval Station in San Francisco. He will be in office work.

Sam and Bert Embree from San Diego and Roy Embree and wife from Los Angeles were home for a few hours on Sunday Aug. 15. This is the first time the brothers had been together for nearly a year.

Mrs. Wallace McKnight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen of 62 Suffolk ave., received word this week that her husband, Lieut. Wallace McKnight, an aviation engineer with the Air Corps, has just been sent on a special mission to Camp Springs Field at Washington, D. C. This mission will last about two weeks at the end of which time he will return to his station at the Army Air Base in Richmond, Va. Lieut. McKnight received his basic training at Ft. Delvoir, Va. He has been at home with his family only once in the last six months.

Sgt. George W. Anderson, son of Mrs. C. W. Sears of 695 W. Orange Grove ave., Santa Anita Oaks, spent the week-end at home. Sgt. Anderson is stationed at Thermal Airbase where he was transferred in July from Birmingham, Ala. He received his basic training at Jefferson Barracks.

Gene Nault, who has finished his training as an Army motorized mechanic and came home on furlough, returned early this week to Ft. Warren, Wyo. Latest word from his brother, Leonard, indicated he is with the Army contingent in Iceland.

James Dingman, former Sierra Madrean who went through one of the toughest engagements in the Guadalcanal area as an Ensign in the Navy, has just been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant, junior grade. The ship to

Local Marine Loses
Life In Collision
After Leaving Here

A few hours after leaving Sierra Madre where he spent a furlough from the Marine Officer's Training School at Alameda, Jack E. Frasher was killed in a collision at Merced Sunday evening. His family here was unable to get details of the accident other than that the motor cycle on which he was traveling back to Alameda collided with another vehicle on the outskirts of Merced.

He is survived by a step-father, Julian Malone who is now with the Army in England, and his step-mother, Mrs. Lalone, who resides at 37 W. Highland ave. Joint military and Christian Science services will be conducted in Grant Chapel at 2 p.m. Thursday afternoon, Aug. 26. Interment will be in Mountain View Cemetery, Altadena.

Survives Sinking of Torpedoed Ship;
Home On Furlough

Ensign Peter Stephen Porterfield, son of W. L. Porterfield, 300 Churchill rd., is home on a short furlough. He left Sierra Madre Feb. 22, as Chief Gunner of a Liberty Ship convoy for the south-west Pacific. The cargo was delivered complete, and the crew started back for the United States via the South Atlantic Ocean. Midway its trip the ship was torpedoed and sank, but the entire crew with the exception of one man reached a small island safe but with no baggage or clothes, on July 7th. They were picked up by an American ship, and landed safely at Norfolk, Va. from which city Ensign Porterfield came home to his family.

It is now arranged that until school opens in September Thursday afternoons will be Youth Day at the Red Cross Headquarters. From 2:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. each Thursday the girls from 15 years up will be welcomed to assist in making surgical dressings.

ARMY VACATES HOSPITAL
HERE STARTING BIG SHIFT
INTO NEW HOME PLACESImpatient Buyers Finally Come Into Possession Of Their Properties

Surrender by the Army of the former Topping estate at West Sierra Madre and Michillinda blvds. has put a great moving program into operation in Sierra Madre and made many anxious families happy by allowing them to get into their own recently purchased homes.

While the Army occupied the Topping estate as a hospital for the men at Camp Santa Anita the William Kinneys of 171 So. Baldwin avenue could not move into the Topping place though they had bought and taken title to the real estate some weeks ago and with their large family, were eager to get into it.

And Carl Hansen whose home at 219 North Sunnyside avenue had been sold could not get into the Kinney home on S. Baldwin until the Kinneys got out. The David Resnicks wanted to move into the Hansen house but could not surrender their home at 219 North Sunnyside to the Benjamin Metricks who had bought it until the Hansens moved. The Metricks could not move into their new property until the Resnicks vacated and the Sol Knees, who had bought the Metrick house, couldn't get possession of it until the moving van had removed the Metricks' effects. So the Knees had to remain in the house they occupied at 38 South Sunnyside avenue.

There were weeks of chafing and anxiety during which families kept inquiring when they could get into their newly acquired properties. Most of them had packed their belongings preparatory to summoning the transfer man and were more or less just sort of camping and getting along as best they could.

Then finally the luxurious Vista del Arroya resort hotel in Pasadena was completely converted to hospital use for the Army. The dam had given away and the impatient Sierra Madre householders were on their way. The Army moved out of the Topping place and the Kinneys assumed possession. A van dropped the Hansen belongings off at the former Kinney home. The Resnicks moved into the Hansen house. The Metricks moved into the Resnick house

Founders Of
The City Are Coming BackTo Appear In Pageant
Sunday Impersonated by Younger Generation

Founders of Sierra Madre in the early 80's will trod the boards of the grammar school auditorium Sunday afternoon impersonated by the city's younger generation. In the pageant, Mother Mountain, children have unwittingly followed the receipts of the great educator Montessori and Rousseau who advocated dramatic play as the final word in education. Children learn by doing. This has been the underlying idea of the dramatic effort of the local grammar vacation school this summer.

It seemed a fine idea to Mrs. Floyd and the school authorities to give the children of this unique little mountain city an appreciation of the growing pains experienced by the city as it evolved from one home in an immense orchard to a modern small city. Now summer is nearly over, and the children have had a fascinating time "playing-like" they were the various characters whose personalities are so indelibly stamped on Sierra Madre.

But when children "pretend," the like to have an audience, and so it is with the children of the vacation school. They make no pretense to being finished actors; they are some one else, and they are inviting their friends to come and share the fun they have had in their make-believe.

Mrs. Floyd is past master in helping children pretend, for she herself has not outgrown the love for "dressing up". Mrs. Morgan Leshner and Mrs. Edward Halperin are entering into the spirit of the play, and are doing wonders with the quaint costumes loaned by lovers of tradition. They also are in charge of make-up for the 40 or 50 little actors who are to represent the leading characters of early times. On Thursday afternoon Club-scout leader Peterson is to take 150 feet of film of characters and scenes which will be given for the last time on the following Sunday.—Cathryn Elliott.

and the Knees took over the Metrick place.

And that is just the beginning. As soon as a moving van is available a West Montecito resident will move into the former Knees house and a new tenant will slip in there. It will go on and on almost endlessly. And folks are still buying homes here like peanuts at the circus.

Fire Losses
Here Still Dwindling

Sierra Madre suffered a fire loss of $300 during the fiscal year ending June 30, the city council was informed in the annual report of Fire Chief James C. Heasley submitted Tuesday. The loss to buildings was $200 and contents $100. Per capita loss was 5-1/2 cents and per capita cost of operating the department was 94 and 1/2 cents.

Maintenance of the department cost $5,370.33 or $1,328.67 under the budget allowance. There were only two brush fires, seven dwellings and one caused by an incinerator; two false alarms. All figures and estimates in the report were based on the population figures shown by the last census, 5,680, with 2,550 buildings an assessed valuation of $2,897.825 and 9,863 acres of watershed.

To Complete School
Staff This Week

If the local school board is able to sign up a boys physical instructor before the week ends, as it expects to do, the grammar school teaching staff will be completed and the school will be ready for opening of the school year on Monday, September 13, by which time the new caretaker expects to have the classrooms and building generally spick and span.

Brothers Sing And Preach At Bethany

When the Rev. Graeme Smith of Portland, Ore. preached at Bethany Church Sunday, his brother, Lieut. Benjamin Smith, an instructor at Camp Santa Anita sang the solo for the service. These young men are both sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Smith of 609 W. Sierra Madre blvd. and were raised here.

BETHANY SOCIETY TO PICNIC IN THE PARK

The annual picnic of the Bethany Missionary Society will be held at noon Tuesday, in the city park. A pot-luck luncheon will be served, everyone providing his own table equipment. Coffee will be served by the committee. Dr. Ione Lomen will be present and portray the life of a Navajo Indian girl. ## Baby Daughter Gift to Army Trainee

When Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dailey of 162 E. Algeria ave. took their daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Dailey of Pasadena, to Tucson, Ariz., to visit her husband before he was transferred from primary training at Ryan Field to basic training at Tecos, Texas, they also took a gift. The gift was in the form of a baby daughter who was born the following Sunday, July 25, in Tucson. The baby, who weighed six pounds at birth, has been named Sharon Louise Dailey. She with her mother, has now returned to Pasadena where they will continue to make their home. Mrs. Dailey is experiencing all the thrills attendant upon being a new grandmother.

Bethany USO Group Is Entertained

Mrs. William Montgomery, chairman of the committee, invited the ladies to her home in Arcadia to a luncheon after which plans were perfected for this month's serving. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Montgomery's hospitality were: Mrs. Edward DeLong, formerly of Sierra Madre; Mrs. A. E. O'Banion of 337 Camille ave.; Mrs. F. B. Hollister of 193 N. Lima st.; Mrs. Mildred K. Weekes of 171 E. Grand View ave.; Mrs. Fannie Sea and Mrs. Ratliffe of 198 W. Montecito ave.

School To Exhibit Work Of Pupils

On Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Aug. 27, 28, and 29, the Arts and Crafts room at the local vacation school will be open for exhibition to the parents and friends of the school. The little folk have done some clever and character-developing work this summer. Through pleasant, and some unpleasant experiences, they have gone serenely on under the experienced leadership of Amy Merrihew making beauty from waste materials. Now they wait, with the nonchalance of childhood for the verdict of the adult world into which they look with more or less desire.

New No. 3 Ration Books Come Into Use September 12; Values Unchanged

The brown ration stamps in War Ration Book 3 will come into use September 12 for the purchase of meats, fats, oils, butter and cheese.

They will replace the red ones in War Ration Book 2, as the latter are used up and have the same point value.

Henceforth, O.P.A. announces, the meats-fats ration stamps always will expire on the Saturday nearest the end of a month, with the new sets becoming valid on successive Sundays.

The last red stamps in Ration Book 2—stamps Y and Z will expire on October 2, and will become valid as follows: stamp Y, August 29; and stamp Z, September 5.

Brown stamps A and B, becoming valid on September 12 and 19, respectively, both will expire on October 2. The next four brown stamps, all expiring on October 30, will become valid on the following dates: stamp C, September 26; stamp D, October 3; stamp E, October 10; and stamp F, October 17.

Between September 12, when the first series of brown stamps becomes valid, and October 2, when the final sets of red stamps expire, both red and brown stamps will be usable. After October 2 only the brown stamps will be used.

Not until November will it be necessary to bring into use stamps replacing the blue stamps used for canned, frozen and dried foods.

O.P.A. announced that blue stamps U, V and W would become valid September 1 and would be good until October 20.

O.P.A. also announced that gasoline dealers will be prohibited after September 1 from accepting old-type B and C gasoline coupon books. Car owners still holding the old-style books should exchange them for new sheets of coupons between August 23 and September 1, it was stated. The exchange will be made on a coupon-for-coupon basis.

SEE WHERE

Military moguls aren't discounting that warning of Adjutant General Ray W. Hays, Commander of the California State Guard, that the Japs are getting ready to bomb the Pacific Coast as a face saving gesture. Most of the military experts, as a matter of fact, expect an attempted California bombing within the next 60 days—and plans have been made accordingly.

Retail merchants would gladly shoot on sight the OPA executive who started the agitation for the use of tokens to make change for ration coupons. The merchants always have bitterly (and successfully) opposed the use of tokens in collecting the State

Sales Tax, claiming the confusion would be colossal. And with their clerks just getting used to red stamps and blue stamps, they see double at the very thought of being asked to make change in ration tokens.

As if the War Labor Board didn't have enough trouble already! Now comes a real problem. A certain young lady of 13 years, whose father had informed her that he couldn't raise her allowance without the permission of the WLB, is petitioning that august body for an increase from $1.00 every two weeks to $1.10. Now the Board must decide if this will violate the "Little Steel" formula and thereby upset the nation's financial apple-cart. Their decision

Only Occupation Of Fathers Will Count In The Draft

After October 1 when drafting of fathers begins, those in non-deferrable activities or occupations, regardless of their order numbers, will be the first fathers called for military service. Those who transfer to essential occupations and thus release single men for military service help to decrease the need for drafting fathers. Generally speaking, after October 1, the occupation of an eligible registrant will determine whether he will be inducted or deferred if his number is called. However, the question of hardship to dependents must be given consideration in each case.

In Its Third Week

Moppets to the right of them and moppets to the left, on goes that great American unlettered project, the parents, and Booth Tarkington's laugh-laden summary of their problems, "Seventeen" went into a third and positively final week at Pasadena Community Playhouse from August 23 to 29.

"Seventeen" brings down its final curtain on Sunday evening, with performances nightly at 8:30 and Saturday matinee at 2:30.

favorable or otherwise—will be fraught with potential dangers. Suppose the WLB says "yes". Every youngster in the land might demand an increase, plunging many parents into the "red". Suppose the answer is "no". The adolescent army might picket their parents. The Board faces the acid test.

War-time restrictions on speed and mileage and cooperation on the part of the motoring public are credited with a 41 per cent reduction in traffic deaths in America during the first six months of the year compared with the same period in pre-war 1941.

★ A STATEMENT BY SANTA FE IN BEHALF OF THE NATION'S FARMERS, FRUIT GROWERS, AND CANNERS

The Harvest ★ In the next few weeks tons upon tons of food crops must be harvested. If farmers don't get help most of these crops will rot on the ground. As you well know, there is a crying need for these vital foods—by our Armed Services, by our Allies, and, by you and your family.

Food Shortage ★ You are vitally interested in this harvest. It is the city dweller who'll do without if there's a food shortage due to harvest failure. The farmer may go broke, but he'll have plenty to eat, and food requirements of our Armed Forces must be met. So—help the farmer and yourself.

Your Vacation ★ Spend it on a farm, in an orchard or cannery. You'll reap food, fun and profit—you'll perform a vital service for your country—you'll enjoy a different vacation—you'll be paid prevailing wages. Housing facilities will be provided. It'll be fun—take your family.

Part Time Work ★ If you can't spend a week or more, go for a day or a few hours each week end. Don't hesitate because you're inexperienced. There are jobs you can learn quickly and your physical ability will be taken into account. ★ Apply at the nearest Farm Labor Office—Agricultural Extension Service.

THE BAYONET'S JOB

American Army officers in Sicily are confronted with the job of convincing the civilians on that occupied Italian island that democracy cannot be exported at the point of the bayonet.

The civilian Sicilians firmly believe that citizenship in the U. S. A. inevitably and immediately follows the American flag. And now that the flag has been planted on a large portion of their island, many, according to correspondents there, already are talking about their "rights and privileges" as American citizens. While the reaction of the Sicilians is flattering, yet it provides perhaps the most tragic commentary on the sad level to which Fascism reduced them. It left them apparently unaware that citizenship in a democracy involves responsibilities as well as rights and privileges.

The Sicilians have yet to learn that democracy comes from within, and not at the point of the bayonet. All the bayonet can do is lift the yoke of oppression from their necks and remove the forces which stifle the growth of self rule. The achievement of democracy itself is a job for the Sicilians and not for the American occupation forces.

Women At Home Can Help Red Cross

Many women with small children or an invalid to care for feel badly that they cannot aid in Red Cross activities which take them away from home. But the Surgical Dressings Unit needs help with laundering of aprons used in the sewing room. There are no collars or cuffs, and there is no starch. If interested women will contact Mrs. Peterson at Red Cross headquarters any day, or Mrs. Colligan on Wednesday or Friday, their efforts will be greatly appreciated.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

From all indications, a cigarette was the cause of another serious fire, that could have been a lot worse. Unless you have a nurse around to put out the fire when it starts, you had better play safe and have your last smoke before retiring.

This midnight fire in Floral canyon gave an opportunity to prove the value of the harmony that exists between the fire fighting forces of Sierra Madre, the "Forest Fire Fighters Service" and the Forestry firemen. It also proved the value of having a driver at the station at night. One of our regular men was on duty when the fire call came in, and was one of the reasons for the quick response.

To those who offered their aid in fighting the fire, the regular firemen feel grateful in the highest degree.

Soldiers In Camps Know Real Fighting Is Yet To Come

American fighting men being trained for the ordeal ahead are becoming increasingly restless and anxious to get into the fight and get it over with, according to William L. Burr, stationed now at another desert location—Camp Irwin, 37 miles north of Barstow, as Red Cross field director. He returned to Camp Irwin Tuesday evening after a 72-hour leave with his family here.

"Boys at the camps to which I have been assigned recently are not deluded with the idea that we have the war about won," said Burr. "They know the real fighting is ahead and want to get into it. I can't imagine how the morale of men could be higher. They are not only prepared to do their share of fighting but it is quite remarkable how they are converting their meager pay into War Bonds and stamps, realizing that they are not only contributing in this way to winning the war, but laying away some money for the inevitable slump when the war is all over and everybody will be hunting jobs".

Yarn Arrives For Red Cross Knitters

Mrs. H. Randolph Wood of 255 No. Hermosa, who has charge of the knitting for the Red Cross, has received a plentiful supply of olive-drab yarn suitable for sleeveless sweaters, helmets and gloves or service men. The women who have been anxiously waiting for more knitting to do for the soldiers can now get their yarn by applying at the Red Cross headquarters.

ROUGHING IT

Phyllis Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Young of 214 Olivera lane, with 13 other Campfire Girls from the Pasadena Camp carried her 30-pound pack up Old Greyback while camping in the San Bernardino mountains. Nancy Pierson of 635 Canyon Crest dr., one of the 13, helped make camp at Thousand Springs where the girls under the supervision of their leader gathered wood, made fires, and cooked their own dinner, then made their bed-rolls out under the stars.

UNCENSORED

By LEONE BAXTER

Despite the great hubbalo women have made in behalf of "equal rights", many don't really like them much once they get them.

Oddly enough, the strange, new equality of rights, privileges and responsibilities that engulf the life of WAC recruit are largely responsible for women's reluctance to fill the ranks of the Corps promptly. Volunteers, eager to do battle for their country, still are shying away a bit from the Women's Army, despite the fact that this is the first time in history that women have had an opportunity to stand shoulder to shoulder with service men in war time under so nearly parallel circumstances.

Interesting reasons for such reluctance are disclosed by WAC recruiting officers. Women, ranging in age from 21 to 44, who might otherwise enlist and make fine "soldiers", are irked beyond endurance by regulations prohibiting privates from dating regular Army lieutenants or other commissioned officers. Men, of course, long have served their country under the same code which disregards civilian social status, bars friend from friend and often brother from brother, publicly.

Epitome of equality is the comparison of a regular Army private's uniform with that of a WAC member. Both are adequate. That is all. Both, of course, may be improved to a very high point of beauty and fitness by the addition of stripes, bars and other military decorations. But in the meantime, a simply adequate uniform still seems wholly inadequate to countless feminine minds.

Similarly, the grooved and regimented Army life is somewhat less appealing to many than that of the woman engaged in civilian volunteer service. Particularly if a cute hat and trim uniform go with the service. Can't even duty leaves time at least for a bit of personal life—while the WAC member is in the Army up to her Palas Athene insignia, just like her brother whose life and time belong to Uncle Sam once he dons his G.I. gear. Every dislocation of the WAC or WAVES or any other women's military organization finds its parallel in the men's department.

So far, California has almost made up in quality the lack in quantity of enlistments, so high has been the caliber of recruits, but women have yet to measure up to their full stature in helping to build the important military arm.

When they remember that the things that trouble them most in the military service of their country are an integral part of the very "equalities" so long demanded, the rolls of the WAC will begin to grow and lengthen.

Forty Cents Wisely Spent Brings Back a Valuable Watch

Mrs. R. C. Kealer of 125 E. Mira Monte ave. has had her faith in human nature fortified in the last few days. While shopping in Sierra Madre Mrs. Kealer lost a little package containing a watch, valuable in itself with its jewels and all, but of much greater value as a present from her father who has since passed on. That did the trick. The day after that issue of the News was published Mrs. Kealer came back to the News office, very happy, and obviously so. "Your want ad brought my watch back," she said, "and I am very grateful both to the News and to the person who found it and was good enough to return it."
